

Flow chart illustrating the relationship between the five discriminant analysis models created for the Phoenix / Gila basin. Note that lithic petrofacies are broken into two groups before individual petrofacies are identified, while mineralic petrofacies are distinguished on the basis of a single model.